

Sir David Tang, KBE, Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et Lettres, BA (鄧永鏘爵士)

Sir David Tang was born in Hong Kong and studied at La Salle College before going to England where he attended Cambridge and London University and Law Society. In 1983 he taught at Peking University. He was the Founder of Hong Kong Cancer Fund, Presidents of the Hong Kong Down Syndrome Association, the Royal Commonwealth Society Hong Kong Branch and Royal Geographical Society Hong Kong, Patron of Hong Kong Youth Arts Foundation and Director of Asia Art Archive. In London, he was a trustee of the Royal Academy of Arts and Chairman of the Asia Pacific Acquisitions Committee at the TATE. He was also an advisor to the London Symphony Orchestra and President of the London Bach Society.

Sir David Tang passed away peacefully in August 2017 and his significant contribution to volunteerism and society is imperishable.
