

Mr LO Lok Fung, Kenneth (羅樂風先生)

Mr Kenneth Lo Lok Fung is the Chairman of the Crystal Group which was founded with his wife Yvonne Lo in 1970. Mr Lo has over the years transformed the traditional garment manufacturing business into a dynamic, progressive and competitive enterprise. In recognition of his visionary and innovative business leadership, he received the distinguished Hong Kong Industrialist of the Year Award 2012.

Mr Lo actively contributes and participates in the promotion of education, social responsibility and charitable services both in Hong Kong and China. He financially supported the Agency for Volunteer Service's Hopeful School Project from 1997 to 2011. The Crystal Group has a strong dedicated team of volunteers to support its charitable volunteer services. Mr Lo has recently assisted in the establishment of a Volunteers Association in China and is interested in the promotion of volunteering its professional management, expertise and in particular sustainable development to achieve the ultimate goals of a civil society.

