3. Terms and Conditions of Referral Service

- 3.1 Recruitment of volunteers arranged by AVS for any volunteer-involving Registered Organizations (“ROs”) should not be construed as AVS represents, endorses, or recommends any organizations or their services.
- 3.2 AVS uses the information provided by members to match them with suitable service opportunities. Therefore, members must ensure that such information provided, including personal background, skills and experience, is true and correct. ROs may further evaluate the suitability of the members referred based on their actual service needs.

- 3.3 Members engaging in services that may put them in contact with children (under 18 years old) or mentally incapacitated persons must declare whether he/she has any sexual offence conviction record. The handling of such declaration and other personal data of members will be in accordance with the "Personal Data (Privacy) Policy" of AVS.
- 3.4 With respect to the referral service, AVS merely acts as a bridge between members and the ROs. Members do not represent or act on behalf of AVS in any way. The service format and details are subject to negotiation and mutual agreement between the ROs and members. ROs are responsible for the provision of clear guidelines and supervision of the volunteers' performance of service.
- 3.5 In general, ROs have the responsibility to ensure that their services do not involve high-risk activities and that there are no reasonably foreseeable major risks in the service venues. Members must evaluate their own fitness and other factors/conditions before participating in any services and assess whether they can handle the job requirements. Members have the right to be given the full details of the service prior to participation which shall be at their own free will. For any enquiries, please contact AVS or the ROs concerned.
- 3.6 Members shall indemnify AVS for and against any proceedings, claims, damages, loss or liability of any kind or nature brought by any third party against AVS arising out of or in connection with the members' breach of the terms and conditions set out in this Notes. These obligations do not lapse upon expiry or termination of the membership terms.
- 3.7 Unless otherwise specified, AVS will not assume any legal liabilities arising from or related to the Volunteer Referral Service. Members shall not be entitled to claim any punitive, indirect or consequential losses (including loss of income/ profit) from AVS.
